Dear Fellow Humanists,

This message will introduce the Humanist Society of Greater Phoenix (HSGP) located in Mesa, Arizona, about 20 miles east of central Phoenix.

We're very proud of the fact that we have our own community center where a variety of activities occur. Every other Sunday from 10-12 AM, we have a meeting featuring a speaker. These speakers come from a wide variety of disciplines and speak to us regarding rationality, science, social justice, humanities, and the arts. Several members keep us abreast of cultural events in the area including those at Arizona State University, located in nearby Tempe. Various other activities are held at the community center. They include a book club, inquiring minds discussion group, and even a game night.

When and if you ever find yourself in the Phoenix, AZ area and would like to spend some time with welcoming, like-minded people, please come to some of our meetings and events to check us out. We would very much like to have you join us.

For an ongoing list of all HSGP activities please go to our website, listed on the upper right corner of this letter. You can also see our activities on Meetup, <http://www.meetup.com/Humanist-Society-of-Greater-Phoenix/>

Sincerely,

Richard Dewey
