

Resist !

In this, the year of 2018, we wait in fear and trembling to find out whether all our efforts will be enough. Can we muster enough votes and money to overcome the gerrymandering, the thousands of voters thrown off the rolls, the unlimited money of the powers that be, clever character assassinations, and the army of Russian bots that played havoc with our election last election?

We watch the war against Main Street, against the poor and what used to be the middle class, while Wall Street and the stock market make new millionaires every day.

We are facing bankruptcy at the first major illness while our tattered safety net springs new holes every day and our national debt balloons to give tax breaks to millionaires.

Resist as though our future, our children's future, and the future of our planet, are at risk, because they are.

You've got to vote, vote, vote, vote.

That's it; that's the way we move forward. That's how we make progress for ourselves and for our country.
