Humanist Community Hosts Watch Party for 78th American Humanist Conference

This year, the AHA Conference is being streamed live from five different universities across the country over three days (June 7-9) so that, not only attendees, but anyone with access to the internet can watch the entire conference free in your own home. You can register at conference.americanhumanist.org up to the day of the event.

At the Watch Party, unfortunately now full, we will share the pleasure in the talks and miss you.

The talks present a humanist perspective on education, the science, criminal justice, life issues and other topics.

The Humanist of the Year is Salman Rushdie. Other awards are: Lifetime Achievement Award, Isaac Asimov Science Award, Humanist Media Award, Humanist Arts Award, and LGBTQ Humanist Award.

Mildred J. Davis (Millie)

Mildred J. Davis (Millie) was born in Waldron Indiana in 1922, and died at her home in Palo Alto on April 28, 2019 at age 96. She married Richard D. Davis in 1944, and raised three children; Ron, Kathy, and Brian.

She was active for many years in city and neighborhood affairs. She was involved with the Palo Alto Unitarian-Universalist Church, and then the Humanist Community in Silicon Valley for several decades.

She lost her beloved husband, Richard, in 1999. After that she continued living in her home with her two sons, Ron and Brian. She will be greatly missed for her caring, kind, and generous nature, and for her positive outlook on life.
