Ruth Bader Ginsburg (1933-2020)

We lost a champion of humanist values and liberal jurisprudence with the death of Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg on September 18. One of the most powerful women in US history, she changed fundamental laws before she put on the robe and then remained a powerhouse of dissent against all tyranny, bigotry and sexism.

Among her accomplishments, she saw that Supreme Court documents need not be dated "in the year of our Lord."

Centering the Margins, a Virtual Conference

The LGBTQ Humanist Alliance and the American Humanist Association are organizing the second annual Centering the Margins Summit on Saturday, October 17 from 12:00PM to 6:00 PM. This virtual conference will have multiple speakers presenting on LGBTQ issues across an array of topics that will enable LGBTQ members of the secular/humanist community to come together, connect on issues, and collaborate on actions.

Go to www.lgbtqhumanists.org for details, a list of speakers, and how to register.

Census 2020

Over the dissent of a judge appointed by President Trump, the Ninth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco voted 2-1 to leave intact last week's order by U.S. District Judge Lucy Koh of San Jose requiring the census count to continue until October 30.

If you haven't taken the census yet, go to my2020census.gov or call 1 844 330 2030.

Can You Store Items for the Humanist Community?

Closing Humanist House, and selling and giving away and taking things home, has still left us with a storage locker full of items needing shelter until needed at a cost of $300 dollars a month. If a few more members could house an item, such as a box of books, we could give up the locker. If you have a corner for us, contact Sena Havasy at senahav@gmail.com or 408-739-5638.

If you already have things, please send us a list for when that happy day comes.

Online Forums

Due to COVID 19 our forums are online with Zoom. Echoplex Media provides the platform. Go to <https://us04web.zoom.us/j/314247393> to attend online through the microphone and camera on your computer or go to <https://www.echoplexmedia.com/humanist> to watch the forum.
