Candidates for the Humanist Community Board

Elections to the board of the Humanist Community will be held at the end of February. The logistics of this election during shelter in place are yet to be worked out. Alex Havasy was elected for another term last year and is not up for reelection this year. Alfred Jan will be leaving the board, we are grateful for his service over these years.

The Nominating Committee has selected the following slate of candidates: Greg Alexander, Matt Courtney, Pam Erwin, Dana St. George, Ray Sundby, and Scott Wakefield. If elected, Dana St. George will be the newest member of the board.

A candidate can also be nominated by a petition if signed by 15 community members no later than January 24.

The Humanist Community Needs You!

The Humanist Community needs help with the following tasks:

1. Treasurer

You do not need to be a member of the Board. This is a good time to take over the task; we have an online professional bookkeeper, the books are clean, and both Greg Alexander and Marie Stephens will mentor you for at least the first year.

2. Membership Committee

Help serve the needs of the community and report to the board. You should be familiar with, or willing to learn, Neon in order to enter and update membership information.

3. Social Action Committee

Help spread humanist values. In the past we have worked with local service groups, joined in demonstrations, and engaged in letter writing campaigns.

4. Program Committee

Help schedule speakers for our forums.

5. Maintenance of Our Facebook Page

Our Facebook page is our connection to the larger world. At present we have no one handling this page.
