

Burt Liebert – We’ll Miss You

The Humanist Community lost a great friend last month. Burt Liebert was an active member of the Humanist Community. He and his wife Marge would open their house for potlucks and gatherings on special occasions and Burt continued this involvement after Marge passed on in 2014. In recent years he and Emi Hester, another Humanist member, became close friends

He lived a life any of us would be envious of. He traveled the world, produced plays, and was a college professor. In his late 80’s he was still zip lining in Costa Rica. At the age of 93, he was still teaching creative writing as late as this November. He’s going to be missed by numerous friends and family members including the many kids he and his wife adopted/fostered.

HCSV Board Elections

Elections for the Board of the Humanist Community will take place on the last Sunday in February.

Alex Havasy and Herman Winick were elected for two years last February and are in the middle of their terms.

Greg Alexander, Matt Courtney, Pam Erwin and Alfred Jan will run for another term. Two new candidates are Kakoli Banerjee and Ray Sundby.

Kakoli is a member of the Social Action Committee; she’s presented at the Forums devoted to the California State Propositions in the last two elections.

Ray has had a varied career in Management in various Silicon Valley companies, as well as serving on rescue missions on ski patrols.

Both Ray and Kakoli have been attending quite regularly, and both seem pragmatic and interested in working with the various issues facing the Board right now.

The board is required to have an odd number of members and we have another candidate who is out of the area and unable to confirm that they will serve. Since the deadline for the nominating committee will have passed, we will put this candidate on the slate by petition.

Members may add names to the ballot by petition submitted to the Nominating Committee five weeks before the election. The list of candidates, including those nominated by petition, will be submitted to the membership in writing two weeks prior to the election.
