Distant But Together - A Virtual Celebration of Humanism AHA Annual Conference

Every year the American Humanist Association hosts a gathering of Humanists to discuss humanism and to explore new ideas. Due to the pandemic the AHA will host a day-long virtual conference on Saturday- August 8 from 11am to 6:30 pm (ET)

Join us from the comfort of your own home as we bring you exciting sessions on

- The current status of the church - state battleground
- Racial and economic equity in the age of COVID-19
- Is atheism still a political taboo?
- Growing secular communities

To register and learn more about the speakers go to: conference.americanhumanist.org

Scott Wakefield

We are happy to announce that Scott has brought his skills, enthusiasm and resourcefulness to the Humanist Community board.

Scott has been active in the Academic Video and in the Freethought Book Groups, handles on-line meetings and is always a cheerful and helpful presence.

He got his PhD from Stanford and is an Independent consultant. For several years he produced educational DVDs of major events for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation as a volunteer.

We look forward to sharing the Humanist way with the estimable Mr. Wakefield.
