Happy Thanksgiving!

Remember that you have a lot to be thankful for. People, even those on the opposite side of the political spectrum want the same things you do, to live in harmony with the rest of the world. Nature is beautiful, science is constantly showing us exciting new details about the world, medicine is giving us longer healthier lives, and technology puts more of everything at our fingertips.

The challenges ahead are daunting. Let's face them with optimism and determination.

Free Stuff from Humanist Storage

There's still time to take some free and useful items from our storage room. To save the storage fee we will have it all hauled away by next month.

Items include a step ladder, an ice chest, kitchen utensils, spices and tea, office supplies, and a filing cabinet. A more thorough list was sent out last month, but I can resend it. If you are interest email me at havasy@live.com.

How Are Your People Skills?

Elections to the Humanist Community Board are coming up. Some of the present board are either timed out, or for various reasons, will probably not run for another term. We need to form a nominating committee to find candidates to serve on the board. If you think this is up your alley or you would be willing to serve please contact me.

I would add that serving on the board is fun. Really! It's a chance to exercise your problem solving abilities with fellow board members for about an hour per month on Zoom. Any resulting tasks rarely involve more than an hour's work.

Bylaws require the election to be held by the end of February. A slate needs to be presented to the membership before the end of January.

30 We have ornaments but they are small. If you have any large outdoor ornaments we could really use them!
A member has donated $80 for the tree but we need to buy some big ornaments

We Agree
That we want food and shelter for everyone
That we want to know which is true and best
That we want safety in our communities
That we want freedom in our private lives
