Dinner & Musical Evening with Dan Barker

Friday September 9 at 6:30 at the Sunnyvale Community Center, Recreation Center, Community Room

Dan Barker is the co-president of the Freedom from Religion Foundation (FFRF), the nation's largest freethought association with over 30,000 members. Dan will play the piano and sing many of his fine freethought songs to us and with us. He will also speak briefly on the topic "Losing Faith in Faith," followed by Q&A, and will give us a quick update on FFRF's important work.

If you have symptoms that may be COVID, kindly skip this event. A mask is encouraged, when you are not eating, drinking, or singing.

Sign up for this free event hosted by Werner H. and Judith B. of Atheist Community of San Jose. Get more details at

Humanist Forum Meeting Live In October

Starting October 4 our Sunday Forum will meet in person at the Mountain View Community Center at 201 South Rengstorff Avenue in Mountain View. Once again you can meet your fellow humanists and interesting speakers and join us at our famous lunches after the presentation.

We are not abandoning those who cannot or choose not to attend. The forum will still be live cast on Zoom. You can see the talk, make observations and ask questions interact with us on line.

Those coming to the Community Center must show proof of vaccination and wear masks when not eating.

Potluck at Susan Shalit's Home First Humanist Potluck Since COVID

Join us Saturday, September 10, 3pm-7pm. Covid protocols will be followed. Vaccinations and boosters required. Masks and hand sanitizer available.

For questions contact Susan 408-489-1479 or susanq99@gmail.com.
