Election to HC Board in February

[Due to errors and changes in procedure, the article below has been rewritten.]

The election to the Humanist Community Board of Directors will be held on February 28 at that Sunday Forum. Greg Alexander had three consecutive terms and is not eligible to serve another term, Zem Laski will leave the Board in 2023, and Pam Erwin has been unable to attend Board meetings and will also leave. The candidates from the nominating committee are Alex Havasy and Scott Wakefield, who are up for reelection, and Paul Gilbert, who has offered his services.

The decision to go with a 5-member board has been dropped.

Members may submit candidates to the ballot through a petition signed by 15 members of the Humanist Community to the board, by January 30. A final list of candidates will be emailed to the membership by February 14.

Members may vote in person at the Forum, or use the mail ballots which will be sent out. These ballots must be received by the board by Friday February 24.

You must be a valid member of the Humanist Community to vote. You can join or check your membership status at www.humanists.org/blog/membership.
