“And on the subject of burning books: I want to congratulate librarians, not famous for their physical strength or their powerful political connections or their great wealth, who, all over this country, have staunchly resisted anti-democratic bullies who have tried to remove certain books from their shelves, and have refused to reveal to thought police the names of persons who have checked out those titles. So the America I loved still exists, if not in the White House or the Supreme Court or the Senate or the House of Representatives or the media. The America I love still exists at the front desks of our public libraries.”

— Kurt Vonnegut Jr.
1922 – 2007

Kurt Vonnegut received the Humanist of the Year Award from the American Humanist Association in 1992 and served as the Honorary President of the AHA until his death. Efforts to censor books is gotten worse..
