Humanists of the Year 2023

Dana St. George

Dana St. George and Gerry Gras have been an active couple in the Humanist Community for many years. They both share deep concerns about justice, civil rights, and the environment, and pushing for legislation to support these concerns. As one would expect they are members of the Green Party.

Dana plays piano, guitar and accordion and, as anyone who remembers our performance forums knows, is an accomplished poet with a great sense of humor.

Gerry is the voice of humanistic values at any event he attends live or online.

The two of them delightful friends as well as the conscious of the Humanist Community.

Gerry Gras

Lifetime Achievement

Paul Gilbert

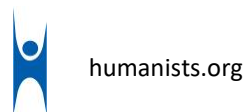

Paul had held leadership positions in the ACLU, NOW, Urban Ministry, NAACP, and the Democratic Party before joining the Humanist Community. He supports causes in the arts, Environment, church/state separation, anti-hate efforts, and international and public affairs. He has used the contacts he acquired to serve on the Program Committee and speak. He has served as executive director and as president of the Humanist Community.

He has earned our Lifetime Achievement Award.
